Washington, April 6.—(By The A. P.) Barred from the streets surrounding the British embassy, the Irish pickets today took to the air.
From a flying machine, they rained down packages of leaflets, espousing the Irish cause, and challenged the police to come up and stop them. As the national capital lacks "sky copy." no arrests were made. Four land pickets, however, who ventured out earlier in the day, were arrested and held in the house of detention.

The "bombing" expedition attracted plenty of attention but it registered no hits. A low visibility and squally winds scattered the "bomba" widely but missed the embassy.

The propaganda leaflets whirled in a tiny snowstorm about the windows of Dolly Madison's house, half a mile off, circled Andrew Jackson's rocking horse in Lafayette Square, were almost wafted into the White House stroughs by the gusty squalls of early April, and showered down on groups of romping children in Dupont Circle.

Evidently somebody in the embassy thought the pickets deserving of some reward for the nervy effort, for late in the afternoon, as official Washington was streaming homeward and the diplomatic corps was out for promenade on Connecticut avenue, there appeared in a front window of the embassy one of the banners previously captured from the militarism. "Was the legend it biazoned out from the old mid-Victorian mansion all evening. It furnished the capital with a tople for discussion of British humor.

London, April 6.—British official circles deciare themselves not alarmed at the reports that the Persian government had manifested a willingness to conclude an understanding with the Russian Soviet government, which in some quarters had been interpreted as meaning that such negotiations might be a preface to military action which would menace British interests in Pershia. The British view is that the contemplated negotiations would pertain only to economic matters, leading to an agreement similar to those already concluded or in process of execution between Soviet Russia and some of the European governments.

tween Soviet Russia and some of the European governments.

It is recalled that the Lenine government some time ago approached Persia, offering to concel all treaties and conventions unfavorable to Persian interests, and it is believed that the latest development is merely a manifestation of Persian willingness to accept the offer.
